DECLARED NOT FACTORY

Status of Tobacco Redrying Plant is Determined.

Lexington, Ky.-After discussing the matter the Board of City Commissioners decided that a tobacco redrying plant is not a manufactory, and therefore is not exempt from taxation for five years under the ordinance exempting new manufactories from city taxation for that length of time. The vote stood 4 to 1 for this ruling, Mayor J. E. Cassidy casting the only negative vote. Mayor Cassidy took the position that a redryer is a part of the manufacturing process of tobacco. On the other hand, Commissioner Keeling Pulliam declared that he had not only inspected the plants in question, but that he had consulted some of the leading tobacco men here, and they had given it as their opinion that it was a joke to construe a redrying plant as a manufactory, and it was not considered so in any other city of the country

Mine Workers' Case of Interest.

Perhaps the most important case to come up at the present term of the United States district court, and one which will be attended with national interest, is that of the United States signed by the Kentucky Panama-Pa against John P. White, president of the United Mine Workers of America, and other members of the national and district organizations, numbering 170 in all. Mr. White and his associates were indicted by the federal grand jury in Charleston early in the year of 1913, and at the time of the long-drawn-out strike on Paint and Cabin creeks.

Earnings of State Farms.

Out of funds saved from the income from the farms under its management, the State Board of Control is undertaking extensive improvements this summer. The equipment of all the institutions with tubercular wards is the first consideration. Western Kentucky and Lakeland hospitals aiready have them and one is under way at the Eastern Hospital. The sur plus from the Western State Hospital will take care of the cost of erecting a tubercular ward at the Institute for the Care of Feeble Minded here. A contract for this will be let soon. The construction of a new boiler house, resetting of the entire battery of boilers and stokers and installation of a new 300-horse-power boiler at Lakeland will require six months' time and will cost $20,000. The board has adopted plans for the Industrial building at the Western State Hospital, and work will be started on it at once. The board has bought a big motor truck for use The institution is two miles from Hopkinsville, and the truck is expected to save considerably more than its cost the first year.

Local Court Sustained. Two judgments of the Jefferson circuit court were affirmed by the court of appeals. In the case of the Tharp University School against the Komus Realty Co., the court held that the memorandum of a contract to trade the school property in Zane street to the realty company for its property in Oxford and Cornell places, between Frankfort avenue and Cherokee drive in Louisville, was too indefinite for a sustaining a demurrer to the Tharp age Commission of the city of Louisville against H. Barker & Sons, contractors, who built the Jefferson and Dumesnil-street sewers.

Nominate at Primary.

Candidates for the short term in the United States senate to fill the vacancy created by the death of Senator William O. Bradley must be nominated in the state primary in August. This opinion was given to the assistant secretary of state by the attorney general. The occasion of the opinion was an inquiry of Van Sant as to whether he should receive and file the declarations of those persons who desire to be candidates in the August brought for all in the Jefferson circuit primary for the short term. Attorney General Garnett reviewed the former decisions of the court bearing on this coint. He said: "Candidates for unexpired terms to be filled at the November election shall be nominated at the primary next preceding such November election, provided such va-cancy occurred not less than * days the erection of a Kentucky building at before the day on which the next pri mary is to be held.

Ohio in the Lead.

At the fourteenth annual state council of the Daughters of America, a gain ed to be represented in the moving of 600 members during the year was reported. The states of Maryland and Kentucky are having an exciting race for the second place in membership in the Union. Ohio leads by nearly twice the number in the other states. Mrs. Fannie Dinsley, of Newport, Ky. was elected State Councillor, and Mrs. Emma Whiting, of Newport, was reelected State Secretary and National Trustee. Two of the most important offices of the organization will go to Newport. Eleven new councils have been instituted during the year, making a total of 78 councils in the state.

Candidates Must Enter.

Candidates for the short term for United States Senator to fill the vacancy created by the death of Senator William O'Connell Bradley must be nominated in the state primary in August.
